Brittingham Named Deputy Warden of Sussex Correctional Institution

Delaware Department of Correction Commissioner Carl Danberg announces that Michael Brittingham was recently named the new Deputy Warden of the Sussex Correctional Institution (SCI) in Georgetown. Brittingham, whose appointment became effective August 6, replaces Michael DeLoy, who was promoted to Warden of the facility.

Brittingham has been with the Department of Correction since 1977, spending each of those years at SCI. He had been a Correctional Captain since 1998, and while serving in that capacity he was in charge of the hostage negotiation team and also was chairman on the interview committee. He made his first rank of Lieutenant in 1985, and was named the facility's investigative officer in 1997.

Brittingham, who has four children, resides in Georgetown with his wife, Kathy.
